5. COSTS & CONDITIONS - The course fee is €100 for both days, (or €60 for Saturday and €40 for Sunday if paid per day).

The Bujinkan Meehan Dojo has organised many seminars in the past, and assures you that we will do everything in our power to make this event an informative and safe learning experience with quality instruction and a commitment to professional standards. In order to ensure this, we need to secure your agreement in relation to the following:

There can be no use of metal weapons or any other dangerous objects during training without the express permission of the event organiser. There can be no 'live' edged training weapons allowed at any time - if you have them, leave them at home. If the visiting teacher demonstrates a technique using a mogito (blunt metal blade) this doesn't mean you have permission to do so - the seminar organiser has the final say.

Please exercise spatial awareness at all times - you are responsible for not causing a problem to those training around you. (Don't swing training weapons carelessly or disrupt other people's training.) Anyone observed to be under the influence of alcohol or any other judgement altering drugs will be asked to leave. If you observe a seminar participant being reckless with regard to the guidelines above, you should inform the organiser. We expect everyone who attends our events to be familiar not only with the Bujinkan Guidelines but also the national laws. We reserve absolutely the right to eject anyone deemed to be in breach of this agreement at any time from the seminar.

Regarding cancellations and no shows.

- In the event of the seminar being cancelled, we will refund participants who have already paid the full amount.
- If the advertised teacher can't attend at the last minute, there will probably be some training held anyway, but anyone who wishes may have their fee refunded.
- If a participant pays in advance and doesn't show at the seminar, there can be no refund. If you pay in advance and are unable to attend the seminar, please contact the organiser in advance to let them know - we'll come to some arrangement.
